Simon Guest as Chair of the Parish Council outlined some aspects of his report.

- ❖ Parish council business as usual
- ❖ Planning – 13 applications have been responded to
- ❖ Highways – working well with highways department despite budget pressure.
- ❖ PROW's – 3 wardens who regularly walk all the footpaths which are generally in a good condition.
- ❖ PROW's - more active with most being in a reasonable condition.
- ❖ Four litter wardens work hard to keep the villages clean and litter free.
- ❖ Amenities – well used.
- ❖ Budget – slight increase in precept

- ❖ Elections were uncontested with two vacancies.

Simon thanked Bev Long the clerk for her support and work for the council, fellow councillors, Margaret Dewsbury and Richard Elliott for their great support and attendance at our parish council meetings and all the Parish Groups for their hard work.

The full report is an appendix to these minutes.

4. Reports from parish organisations, county and district councillors, other bodies

Richard Elliott, District Cllr whose full report is an appendix to these minutes spoke about; Avian flu restrictions, 75 years fire service, South Norfolk functions of 80+ carried on with no real issues, good sound finances and high priorities will be health & wellbeing, building new houses, commercial space for business and teaching children to swim.

Margaret Dewsbury, County Cllr whose full report is an appendix to these minutes spoke about; services busy due to avian flu, 11 new no cold calling zones, fire services has dealt with 650 wild fires, 75th anniversary of the fire service, 100's of courses available from adult learning along with libraries having lots of activities and free packs – they had 9000 children take part in the summer reading challenge. Seventy electric buses ordered, highways continuing with the western link and the A47 North Tuddenham and Easton Road works will be starting soon.

Deborah Bourassa, Runhall Community Group – gave a brief report – full report is an appendix to these minutes. Reformed a year ago, vibrant enthusiastic group bringing the communities together with the main aims to replace equipment on the play area, purchase a defibrillator and run lots of events - jubilee party, carol singing, litter picking and Runfest!

PC Gordon Rance reported that the parish was a very safe place to live – with only one crime report in the year. He talked briefly about road safety, anti-social behaviour, county lines and domestic violence – which was all directed at the bigger towns around the parish.

Simon thanked everyone for their reports – all these and other reports received form part of the appendix to these minutes.
